FREE ACTIVITIES FOR CHILDREN IN DECEMBER

Letters to Santa

Mr. Claus has asked the Library to help him collect your letters again this year. Remember to tell him how good you have been this year and all about the presents you want. Make sure to include your name and address on your letter so he is sure to find your mailbox. Letters should be placed in the special mailbox at the Library. We are collecting letters starting December 1st. Please make sure to get your letter to the Library by Tuesday, Dec 18th so Santa Claus gets your request on time.

Christmas Craft Cart Activities

Kids of all ages are invited to stop by the Library anytime we are open beginning Friday, December 27th through Monday the 30th to make a holiday themed craft.

Tales to Tails

Tuesday, December 17th at 5:30 pm

Register your reader for a 15 minute read aloud session with one of two licensed READ therapy dogs. Reading out loud to the therapy dog helps children build reading confidence and a love for reading.

Abominable

Monday, December 23rd at 1 pm

Three teenagers must help a Yeti return to his family while avoiding a wealthy man and a zoologist who want it for their own gain. This animated adventure film is rated "PG". Free popcorn will be handed-out at the movie. Children age 9 and under need to attend this showing with someone older.

CBD Oil for Your Pet

Monday, December 16th at 5:30 pm

Join Rebecca Scannell and Angie Hermann to learn how CBD oil can be used to ease your large or small pets arthritis and joint pain, digestive problems, inflammation, anxiety and stress, seizures, and other pain issues. This program will help you understand the ingredients in CBD oil so you can choose a product that is safe and effective for your pet. This is a free informational program that is open to everyone.
