Mission Experiences in Senegal with Mary Balson

Tuesday, October 8th at 6:30 pm

Pastor Mary Balson will be sharing insights about each of the four Mission trips she has taken to Senegal, Africa. Pastor Balson has been to Africa three times as part of a medical mission team and on her most recent trip in January of 2019, she served as an advocate for the mission work that is being carried on in Senegal.

Her lecture will give guest a visual experience of life in Senegal's small towns, large cities, and rural areas. As well as pictures of giraffes, zebras, etc. taken at the Bandia Game Preserve, photos taken on Goree Island the site where slaves were exported to the New World, and a viewing of the famous Pike Lake. Also include in the presentation will be photos taken at wellness clinics, the women's prison, the nutrition center, a women's skill center, and the on-going agriculture project. This is a free drop-in event. Refreshments will be served.

Pumpkin Spice and Everything Nice - Little Quilt Show

October 1st - 12th

The Campbellsport Quilting Bees will be showing off some of their autumnal themed smaller creations at the Library in early October. This very talented group of ladies, who have been meeting together to learn new sewing techniques for over 20 years, besides creating full sized quilts, they have sewn amazing creations such as table runners and wall hangings. These items will be on display at the Library for people to admire.

Introduction to CBD Oil

Wednesday, October 23rd at 6 pm

Tuesday, October 29th at 3 pm

*What is CBD oil? How does CBD oil support the body?
How do I find a quality product?*

People are talking about and questioning CBD oil because companies are popping up everywhere. Take the time to attend one of these free classes so you can learn the facts about what CBD oil actually is and what it isn't. After this lecture you will be able to determine if CBD oil is right for you and how to distinguish a quality product from something that is better left on the shelf. There will be time for questions after the presentation. Free refreshments will be served.

FUN FOR KIDS IN OCTOBER

Story Hour

This preschool program is held every Wednesday at 10:30 am. Children listen to stories, participate in learning and fun activities, create a craft, and make some friends. This is a free drop-in program, please feel free to attend one, some, or all the sessions. Free play time if offered after the program.

Cookies and Crafts

During the school year, school age kids are invited to join us every other Tuesday at 3:45 pm to create a craft and or participate in a silly activity while enjoying a treat.

Coco

Friday, October 4th & Friday, October 18th at 1 pm

When aspiring musician Miguel is confronted with his family's ancestral ban on music he enters the Land of the Dead to find his great-great-grandfather, a legendary singer. Come early to make a Coco inspired guitar. This film is rated "PG". Free popcorn will be handed out. Kids under age 10 need to come to the movie with someone older.

Visiting the Beyond

Saturday, October 26th at 11 am

Curt Strutz travels across the country exploring hunted locations and educating the public about their past. He takes his audiences, firsthand, through many of the locations he has visited while showing all original photography, telling his experiences and diving deep into the history (and unsettling past) of many of these locations. Visiting the Beyond is a deeply-rooted historical and photographic tour through haunted buildings sharing architecture, ghost stories, and the creepy history behind these American locations.

This event is perfect for not only people who find "ghost hunting" interesting but it is also great for history buffs, travel enthusiasts, photography admirers, and people who just love a great story. This free drop-in event is appropriate for teens and adults. Free refreshments will be offered.

* Make it a date afternoon by taking your event program to Crave get a deal and have an amazing lunch.*

FREE MOVIES FOR ADULT IN OCTOBER

Red Joan

Monday, October 14th at 1 and 5:30 pm

This drama tells story of Joan Stanley, who was exposed as the KGB's longest-serving British spy. This rated "R" film stars Judi Dench and Sophie Cookson.

The Lion King

Monday, October 28th at 1 and 5:30 pm

This adventure film tells the story of a young lion prince who flees his kingdom after the murder of his father, only to learn the true meaning of responsibility and bravery. The characters in this action film are voiced by Chiwetel Ejiofor, James Earl Jones, and Beyoncé Knowles. This newly released drama is rated "PG".

Free popcorn will be handed out. Anyone under the age of 18 needs to attend these showings with a parent.

Homeschooling Meetup

Monday, October 7th at 10:30 am

Join fellow home educators to share ideas, triumphs, challenges, and concerns about the process of homeschooling. This is a great opportunity to get to know other families in the area with similar goals. This time can be used to plan future group activities. A special selection of homeschooling books will be available that morning to browse through and/or borrow.

Bring the kids to the meeting. Toys will be set out.

The Book Club members will be discussing Bridget Jones's Diary by Helen Fielding on Tuesday, October 15th at 1 pm. This group is always looking for new members. If you would like to join the discussion you can borrow a copy of the book of the month from the Library by stopping at the front desk.
