Reflections of the Campbellsport Area:
What's been lost? What's changed

Wednesday, November 6th @ 6:30 pm

Local historian and educator Karl McCarty will be presenting some of his research in a presentation titled: Reflections: What's been lost? What's changed? Karl McCarty will be sharing memories from interviews with residents from the Ashford, St. Kilian, Eden, and Campbellsport area.

McCarty currently teaches U.S. history, psychology and philosophy at Oakfield High School. Raised in St. Kilian, he has spent the past six years acquiring interviews, stories, quotes, pictures and memories of the past. This presentation looks at what has significantly changed in the area. This includes alterations in what used to be "on the map." As well as, common behaviors and the culture norms of the community in mid 19th century as compared to now.

In addition, changes in mid 1900s economy to now and even changes to the natural landscape will be presented.

McCarty will present for roughly an hour, then open discussion up for questions and suggestions for further research. This is a free drop-in event. Refreshments will be served.

ACTIVITIES FOR CHILDREN IN NOVEMBER

The flightless birds and scheming green pigs take their feud to the next level. This animated action film is rated "PG".

Free popcorn will be handed out at the movies. Children age 9 and under need to attend the movie showing with someone older who is responsible for them.

Farm and Art Fair

Saturday, November 16th 9 am - Noon

Don't miss this great opportunity to shop local and to start your holiday shopping before the rush! Browse quality items such as homemade baked goods, knitted and sewn items, fine art, handmade baby items, seasonal crafts and decorations, natural soaps and candles, quality books, handmade cards and other papercrafts, cleaning and cooking products, make-up and nail coloring supplies, among other items.

All Wrapped Up

Silent Auction Fundraiser December 2 - 7th

The Library is seeking donations of handmade items or themed baskets to raffle in a silent auction. Donated items can be dropped off at the Library anytime we are open starting now through Wednesday, November 27th. This auction will end during an accordion concert and homemade pie sale. Bakers are also needed for the pie sale.

Dementia Conversations

Tuesday, November 5th at 2 pm

When someone is showing signs of dementia, it's time to talk. Often, conversations with family about changing behaviors can be challenging and uncomfortable. This program provides tips for breaking the ice with your family so you can address some of the most common issues that are difficult to discuss: going to the doctor for a diagnosis or medical treatment, deciding when to stop driving, and making legal and financial plans for future care.

To register for this program please call 800-272-3900, email alsommerfeldt@alz.org, or contact the Library. This is a free educational event.

Free refreshments will be served.

Food for Fines

November 1st - 15th

To usher in the holiday good will, the Library will be collecting donations for the food pantry in exchange for forgiving fines. Some restrictions do apply. Please note that all items need to be non-perishable. A staff member will help you resolve the fine removal when you bring your donated items to the counter.

Please make sure that you are not donating items past their expiration date. Expired items will not be accepted.

All collected items will be donated to the Campbellsport Area Food Pantry located at St. Matthew's Catholic Church.

FREE MOVIE FOR ADULTS IN NOVEMBER!
FREE POPCORN WILL BE GIVEN OUT!

The Art of Racing in the Rain

Monday, November 25th at 1 & 5:30 pm

Through his bond with his owner, aspiring Formula One race car driver Denny, golden retriever Enzo learns that the techniques needed on the racetrack can also be used to successfully navigate the journey of life. This newly released comedic romance is rated "PG" and stars Milo Ventimiglia, Kevin Costner, and Amanda Seyfried.

Children age 17 and under need to attend this event with a parent.

Cook the Book - Cook Book Club

November 19th at Noon

Cookie Exchange

Bring 4 to 5 dozen of your favorite homemade Christmas cookies so you can bring home a wonderful variety of cookies for the holidays. Members may bring along a dish to share for the lunch time conversation. This is a fun club. Ask for details about the group at the desk.

The Afternoon Book Club meets on Tuesday, November 19th at 1 pm to discuss The Girl You Left Behind by JoJo Moyes.
