Smart911: Create a Safety Profile

Thursday, September 19th at 1 pm

Join Bobbi Hicken, Director of Communications and Emergency Management for Fond du Lac County, to learn about the life saving benefits of downloading the app Smart911 to your cell phone. This app is secure and the information added to it can be customized to fit the needs of individuals. This app has already helped emergency responders save lives. Don't miss this opportunity to learn how important and easy using this app can be.

This is a free, drop-in event. Everyone is invited. Free cookies and coffee will be served.

ACTIVITIES FOR LITTLE ONES IN SEPTEMBER

Story Hour

This preschool program is held every Wednesday at 10:30 am. Children are welcome to come and listen to stories, participate in activities, create a craft and make some friends. This is a free, drop-in program, please feel free to attend one, some, or all the sessions.

Sensory September

Mondays, September 9th - 30th 10:30 - 11:30 am

Sensory play exposes children to many new experiences, textures, and materials. It is calming for many children and also presents children with lots of new language that they might not otherwise experience - rough, smooth, clumpy, brittle ... Bring your toddlers and preschoolers to our new drop-in sensory program on any or all Mondays.

Cookies and Crafts

During the school year, school-age kids are invited to join us every other Tuesday to create a craft or participate in a silly activity while enjoying a treat.

Frequent Reader

Kids of all ages, stop by the Library to pick-up a card that will help you keep track of the amount of time you spend reading. Every time you complete a card, turn it in at the Library for a prize. This program runs the entire school year.

Homeschooling Meetup

Tuesday, September 10th at 10 am

Join Rebecca (a former homeschool mother) to discuss activities that would help you succeed as a homeschool family. This will be a great opportunity to meet other homeschool families. Bring the kids to the meeting. There will be activities set out for them. If you can't make this meeting, call the Library or stop in so we can keep you up to date about future homeschool meet-up activities.

Bath Bomb Making

Tuesday, September 10th at 5:30 pm

Crafters, teens and adults, are invited to join us to create homemade, colorful and amazing smelling, bath bombs to keep for yourself or to give as a gift.

Registration for this free program is required.

Please stop-in, call, or Facebook message the Library by Friday, September 6th at 6 pm.

MONDAY MATINEES IN SEPTEMBER

The Biggest Little Farm

Monday, September 16th at 1pm

Documentarian John Chester and his wife Molly work to develop a sustainable farm on 200 acres outside of Los Angeles. This humorous documentary is rated "PG"

A Dog's Journey

Monday, September 23rd at 1pm

A dog finds the meaning of his own existence through the lives of the humans he meets. This "PG" rated film stars Josh Gad, Dennis Quaid, and Kathryn Prescott.

FREE MOVIES FOR ADULTS IN SEPTEMBER

Rocketman

Monday, September 9th at 1 and 5:30 pm

A musical fantasy about the fantastical human story of Elton John's breakthrough years. This biography is rated "R" and stars Taron Egerton.

Mary Magdalene

Monday, September 30th at 1 and 5:30 pm

This is the story of Mary Magdalene from her time as a young girl living in village of Magdala until her time walking with Peter, Andrew, James, John, and Judas following Jesus. This rated "R" drama stars Rooney Mara, Joaquin Phoenix, and Chiwetel Ejiofor.

Free popcorn will be handed out. Anyone under the age of 18 needs to attend the movies with a parent.

The Book Club members will be discussing Two Little Girls in Blue by Mary Higgins Clark on Tuesday, September 17th at 1 pm. Stop at the desk to borrow a copy and join the group for an interesting debate.

LOOKING AHEAD

Experiences in Africa

Tuesday, October 8th at 6:30 pm

Join us to learn about Pastor Mary Balson's four missionary trips to Africa.

Farm & Art Market

October - April 3rd Saturday of the Month

The Library is seeking vendors for our monthly winter time Farm and Art Market. If you are interested in selling at this event please stop by the Library for an application and guidelines.

Winter Fundraiser

Saturday, December 7th

The Library is seeking donations of gift themed baskets to sell in a silent auction that will be held over the last week of November and end on December 7th. On that Saturday, the Library will be hosting an holiday themed accordion concert and homemade pie sale.
