Ledgerock Distillery - Distilling a Dream

Wednesday, March 25th at 6:30 pm

Join Jay and Heidi Retzer as they describe their unique small farm. It is a local family operation where they grow high quality corn and wheat that they harvest in order to use in craft distilling. The family distills and bottles vodka, gin, and moonshine on site using limestone-filtered water off the famous Niagara Escarpment. Jay will be discussing the finer points behind the science of the agriculture and technology that goes into creating a quality liquor. He will also discuss the business strategies that they used to launch this venture. There will be time for questions about this new and exciting business located between Eden and Fond du Lac. This is a free drop-in event.

Make It @ Your Library - Spring Gnomes

Monday, March 23rd at 6 pm

Teens and adults are invited to join us for a fun crafting session to create your own one-of-a-kind spring Gnome. Crafters will be able to choose whether their gnome is a boy or a girl and then choose the hat color, clothing, beard or hair style, and accessories. Space is limited so registration and prepayment is required. Please register and pay by Friday, March 20th at noon. The cost to participate in the class is $5, but everyone will leave with one completed unique gnome. All craft supplies are included in the fee.

FREE ACTIVITIES FOR KIDS IN MARCH

Cookies and Crafts

These events are held at 3:45 pm and are open to kids of all ages. An after school snack will be provided.

March 3rd - Make and eat Dr. Seuss themed sweets.

March 17th - Make a family of pipe cleaner pals.

March 31st - Open craft - Kids can choose from a variety of projects.

Tales to Tails

Saturday, March 7th 10:30 am - 12 pm

Register your young reader for a free reading session with a licensed READ therapy dog. Studies have shown that children who regularly read to a trained READ dog develop a high level of reading confidence. Please call, email, stop-in or Messenger us to register for this program.

Spies in Disguise

Friday, March 20th at 1pm

When the world's best spy is turned into a pigeon, he must rely on his nerdy tech officer to save the world. This animated action adventure movie is rated "PG". Children age 9 and under need to attend this showing with someone older who is responsible for them.

LEGOs in the Library

Saturday, March 28th 9:30 - 11:30 am

Whether you're a first time LEGO explorer, or a master builder, we want you to join us for some fun building with LEGOs. This free drop-in program is for children of all ages.

Parents are encouraged to attend and build LEGO structures alongside their children. The Library is always accepting donations of gently used LEGO bricks of any shape or size.

Thursday, April 30th

Are you interested in being a presenter at the 2020 Focus After 50: Informational Fair? Are you a health care professional, financial advisor, or provide other services to retired or about to be retired people and are interested in having a booth at our popular Focus After 50: Informational Fair? Please call or stop-in at the Library so we can give you more information about the event and register your booth.

There will be time for individual questions!

FREE MOVIES FOR ADULTS IN MARCH

Bombshell

Monday, March 16th at 1 & 5:30 pm

This film is based on a true story about a group of women who take on Fox News's Roger Ailes and its toxic atmosphere.

This Academy Award nominated drama stars Charlize Theron, Nicole Kidman, and Margot Robbie.

Richard Jewel

Monday, March 30th at 1 & 5:30 pm

American security guard Richard Jewell saves thousands of lives from an exploding bomb at the 1996 Olympics, but he is vilified by journalists who falsely report that he was a terrorist.

This Academy Award nominated crime drama stars Paul Walter Hauser, Sam Rockwell, and Kathy Bates.

Both of these films are rated "R". Anyone under the age of 18 must attend any showing with a parent. Free popcorn will be handed out. Please feel free to bring your own drink.

Farm & Art Market

Saturday, March 15th 9 am - Noon

Don't miss this great opportunity to shop local! Browse quality items such as: homemade soaps and lip balm, homemade baked goods, handmade jewelry, knitted and sewn items, creative seasonal crafts, upcycled crafts, cleaning and cooking supplies, fine art, and much more.

There is always space for new vendors. If you are interested in selling at the Market please talk to someone on the Library staff. The sellers fee is only $10 for the season.

Afternoon Book Club

Tuesday, March 17th at 1 pm

The group will be discussing A Man Called Ove by Fredrik Backman. This group is always looking for new participants. A copy of the book of the month can be borrowed from the Library for free by stopping at the desk.

Cook Book Club

Tuesday, March 24th at Noon

At the March meeting of the Cook Book Club the members will be sharing their favorite dish to bring to a potluck gathering. Remember to bring a copy of the recipe for the food you are sharing at the meeting. The Library will provide plates, forks, water, and tea.

This is a wonderful opportunity to make some new friends who are also foodies! The group is always looking to add new people to their group. Ask at the counter for details about this monthly meeting.
